6.07 Firearms and Other Dangerous Instruments (REV. 02/21/05)
The Institute takes seriously its obligation to protect the academic community from unlawful conduct or conduct which presents a serious threat to person(s) or property.

The transfer, use, or possession of explosives, fireworks, firearms, dangerous chemicals, or any lethal weapon on Institute property under any circumstances except as part of an Institute authorized activity, instructional session, event or duty is prohibited. This includes possession or storage of such items in personal vehicles, offices, briefcases, filing cabinets or any other storage location.
