Asteroids that have been given a permanent number designation are eligible to be named.