1. Consider the following switching circuit:

A and B switch an input voltage source to an element labeled “C Controller.” This element closes C when the input voltage is high and opens C when the input voltage is low.

A. Complete a truth table for the above circuit with inputs A and B and with an output L, which is the light.

B. Write a logical expression in Boolean algebra that relates the output L to the two inputs.