Office of Alumni Relations

The new year has brought a new name and focus for the Office of Alumni Relations (formerly Alumni Affairs) to more accurately reflect the relationship between the office and alumni, students and friends, along with staff's role in supporting alumni in meeting Rose-Hulman's long-term goals. The office's new name also reflects proper alignment with current practices in the alumni relations profession.

"We will continue to provide outstanding programming, events and communications to engage and connect alumni, students, parents and friends both on campus and worldwide in support of this great institution."

- Ben Paolillo, Executive Director
